

WIDEPIN ACADEMY

Ir. Abdul Rachim, MM CIPM CISCM CIPN CIHRM CITLP

Trainer for International Purchasing and Supply Chain Management Institute (IPSCMI) and American Certification Institute (ACI)

Formerly worked for Oil & Gas and Geothermal multinational companies for 26 years and last position as Vice President Supply Chain Management.

As Vice President Supply Chain Management in Star Energy, his main task is to provide strategic direction to support operations & maintenance activities and major project activities for both Oil & Gas and Geothermal business and also to lead Supply Chain Management department to support Oil & Gas and Geothermal business.

Before Vice President Supply Chain Management, Abdul Rachim was a Senior Manager Procurement in Star Energy, his main task is to manage procurement department to obtain goods and services to support operations & maintenance and drilling functions in the most economic, expeditious, effective way.

Before Senior Manager Procurement, Abdul Rachim was a Senior Manager Human Resources & Development in Star Energy, he is responsible for effective and efficient Company's overall manpower planning & development activities including the formulation of policies and procedures. Before that, Abdul Rachim was also in-charge of HR handle HR Industrial & Compensation Benefit, HR Formalities & People Development Team Leader.

Abdul Rachim has worked for oil and gas industry since 1991 in Oil & Gas and Geothermal multinational companies. Several positions as Purchasing Expeditor, Procurement Specialist, Procurement Superintendent, Government Relations Coordinator, HR Superintendent, Logistics Manager, HR Manager, Procurement Manager and Vice President Supply Chain Management.

He was also a professional trainer and guest speaker in several HR and SCM sessions. Abdul Rachim holds an Engineering Degree in Electronics and Computer from Trisakti University and graduated from Master of Management from University of Indonesia. Through his experience in various roles and positions, primarily in Supply Chain Management, he could share his knowledge and expertise as a trainer.